Report on review of interim condensed consolidated financial statements

To the Shareholders and the Supervisory Board of Sberbank

We have reviewed the accompanying interim condensed consolidated financial statements of Sberbank (the "Bank") and its subsidiaries (together the "Group"), comprising the interim consolidated statement of financial position as at 30 September 2014 and the related interim consolidated statement of profit or loss and statement of comprehensive income for the three- and nine-month periods then ended, interim consolidated statement of changes in equity and interim consolidated statement of cash flows for the nine-month period then ended and selected explanatory notes.

Management is responsible for the preparation and presentation of these interim condensed consolidated financial statements in accordance with IAS 34 Interim Financial Reporting. Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on these interim condensed consolidated financial statements based on our review.

Scope of review

We conducted our review in accordance with International Standard on Review Engagements 2410 Review of Interim Financial Information Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity.

A review of interim condensed consolidated financial statements consists of making inquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with the International Standards on Auditing and consequently does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

Conclusion

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the accompanying interim condensed consolidated financial statements as at 30 September 2014 and for the period from 1 January 2014 till 30 September 2014 are not prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with IAS 34 Interim Financial Reporting.

Selected Notes to the Interim Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements – 30 September 2014

1 Introduction

These interim condensed consolidated financial statements of Sberbank of Russia (“Sberbank”, “the Bank”) and its subsidiaries (together referred to as “the Group” or “Sberbank Group”) have been prepared in accordance with IAS 34 Interim Financial Reporting for the nine months ended 30 September 2014. Principal subsidiaries include Russian and foreign commercial banks and other companies controlled by the Group. A list of principal subsidiaries included in these interim condensed consolidated financial statements is disclosed in Note 30.

The Bank is an open joint stock commercial bank established in 1841 and operating in various forms since then. The Bank was incorporated and is domiciled in the Russian Federation. The Bank’s principal shareholder, the Central Bank of the Russian Federation (“Bank of Russia” or “CBR”), owns 52.3% of ordinary shares or 50.0% plus 1 voting share of the issued and outstanding shares as at 30 September 2014 (31 December 2013: 52.3% of ordinary shares or 50.0% plus 1 voting share of the issued and outstanding shares).

As at 30 September 2014 the Supervisory Board of the Bank is headed by Sergey M. Ignatiev, Chairman of the Bank of Russia in the period of 2002-2013. The Supervisory Board of the Bank includes representatives from both the Bank’s principal shareholder and other shareholders as well as independent directors.

The Bank operates under a full banking license issued by the Bank of Russia since 1991. In addition, the Bank holds licenses required for trading and holding securities and engaging in other securities-related activities, including acting as a broker, a dealer, a custodian, and provision of asset management services. The Bank is regulated and supervised by the Bank of Russia as a single regulator for both banking and financial markets activities in the Russian Federation being a successor to the Federal Service for Financial Markets which was abolished in 2013 and all its powers were transferred to the Bank of Russia. The Group’s foreign banks/companies operate under the banking/companies regulatory regimes of their respective countries.

The Group’s principal business activity is corporate and retail banking. This includes, but is not limited to, deposit taking and commercial lending in freely convertible currencies, local currencies of countries where the subsidiary banks operate and in Russian Roubles, support of clients’ export/import transactions, foreign exchange, securities trading, and trading in derivative financial instruments. The Group’s operations are conducted in both Russian and international markets. As at 30 September 2014 the Group conducts its business in Russia through Sberbank with its network of 16 (31 December 2013: 17) regional head offices, 78 (31 December 2013: 77) branches and 17,262 (31 December 2013: 17,893) sub-branches, and through principal subsidiaries located in Russia such as CJSC Sberbank Leasing, LLC Sberbank Capital, companies of ex-Troika Dialog Group Ltd. and Cetelem Bank LLC (former BNP Paribas Vostok LLC). In the second quarter of 2014 Severo-Vostochny Regional head office’s business was reallocated between Dalnevostochny Regional head office and Baikalsky Regional head office. The Group carries out banking operations in Turkey, Ukraine, Belarus, Kazakhstan, Austria, Switzerland and other countries of Central and Eastern Europe and also conducts operations through a branch office in India, representative offices in Germany and China and companies of ex-Troika Dialog Group Ltd. located in the United States of America, the United Kingdom, Cyprus and certain other jurisdictions.

The actual headcount of the Group’s employees as at 30 September 2014 was 321,134 (31 December 2013: 306,123).

Registered address and place of business. The Bank’s registered address is: Vavilova str., 19, Moscow, Russian Federation.

2 Operating Environment of the Group

The Group conducts its business in the Russian Federation, Turkey, Switzerland, Belarus, Kazakhstan, Ukraine, Austria and other countries of Central and Eastern Europe.

The Russian Federation. The most part of the Group operations are conducted in the Russian Federation.

Operating environment in the Russian Federation during the nine months of 2014 continued to be influenced by several negative factors. In particular, recent events in Ukraine significantly impacted the dynamics of the Russian economy. Certain economic sanctions against Russia were imposed, including the access to global capital markets to sanctioned entities, which had the most significant impact for the Group. Decline of local currency and stock markets in Russia in the first quarter of 2014 significantly reversed during the second quarter of 2014. During the third quarter of 2014 the negative impact on the Russian economy accelerated due to the drop in crude oil prices and limitations in access to global capital markets for a number of Russian leading companies and banks. As a result, during the third quarter of 2014 the Russian Rouble continued to depreciate and lost 16.9% against US Dollar and 10.0% against Euro during the nine months of 2014. Financial markets downturn during nine months of 2014 amounted to: 22.1% decline of RTS index (calculated based on US dollar prices) and 6.2% decline of MICEX index (calculated based on Russian Rouble prices). As the result of the above negative trends during the nine months of 2014 one of the international rating agencies downgraded Russian sovereign rating to the lowest investment grade level.

In the third quarter 2014, several countries imposed certain sectoral sanctions on the Russian economy. In July and September 2014 European Union ("EU") applied sectoral sanctions on the Russian Federation, and certain financial institutions, including Sberbank Group (excluding their subsidiaries established in the EU countries) have been subject to these sanctions. According to these sanctions, it shall be prohibited for the EU residents to directly or indirectly purchase, sell, provide brokering or assistance in the issuance of, or otherwise provide financing, deal with bonds, equity or similar financial instruments issued by sanctioned entities with maturity exceeding 90 days, issued after 1 August 2014 to 12 September 2014, or with a maturity exceeding 30 days, issued after 12 September 2014. In September 2014 the United States ("US") included Sberbank Group into The Sectoral Sanctions Identifications List (the "SSI List") and hereby prohibited US citizens and companies from all transactions in, provision of financing for, and other dealings in new debt of longer than 30 days maturity or new equity of Sberbank Group, its property, or its interests in property. In October 2014 the United States exempted Sberbank's subsidiary Denizbank, Turkey, from broader US sanctions on the Russian financial industry, allowing the Turkish lender to continue accessing US debt markets.

The Management of the Group considers these sanctions in its activities, continuously monitors them and analyses the effect of the sanctions on the Group's financial position and results of operations.

2 Operating Environment of the Group (Continued)

The second important consequence of geopolitical events was the deterioration of foreign and domestic investors' sentiment towards Russian financial markets resulting in the accelerated capital outflow, which totaled USD 85 billion in January - September 2014, and significant reduction both in direct foreign investments and internal investment activity. Internal demand weakened due to the deceleration in consumption growth (from +3.6% in the first quarter of 2014 to +1.4% in the third quarter of 2014, year-on-year), which was caused by the slowdown in growth in retail lending (+18.0% in September 2014 compared to +28.7% in December 2013, year-on-year) and household income (+0.7% in January-September 2014 vs +3.2% in 2013, year-on-year). The above mentioned factors led to further deceleration of Russian economy growth. As a result, GDP growth rate in January – September of 2014 amounted to 0.8%, year-on-year, compared to 1.3% growth in 2013, year-on-year. Foreign trade sector remains the driver of economic growth with significant trade balance improvement due to decline in imports.

Another consequence of geopolitical situation and the Russia's reprisal food embargo to the countries that imposed sanctions against Russian economy was inflation acceleration (from 6.1% in January 2014 to 8% in September 2014, year-on-year), despite heavy crop and limited increase in utilities tariffs. In order to reduce inflationary expectations the Bank of Russia raised in stages its key interest rate by 2.5 percentage points to 8% during the nine months of 2014, which caused material increase in cost of funding for banking institutions. But the reduced public's ability for savings and decrease in attractiveness of retail deposits, as a reaction by the public and business on imposed sanctions, and continued efforts of CBR for purging the Russian banking system of the banks involved in money laundering and tax evasion transactions, stipulated the CBR position as the major liquidity provider to the Russian banking system. The average volume of the Russian banking sector liabilities to the CBR significantly increased by +104% during the nine months 2014, year-on-year. The CBR share in Russian banking sector liabilities increased from 7.7% to 8.8% during the nine months of 2014.

Deterioration in economic growth perspectives and the slowdown in household income growth were the main contributors to the impairment of credit quality of retail loan portfolios. Growth of overdue retail loans portion accelerated in the nine months of 2014 to reach 5.7% for the Russian banking system as compared to 4.4% at the beginning of the year. Overdue corporate loans portion stays at 4.0%-4.3% due to the high growth in corporate lending. This loan portfolio quality impairment requires additional allowances, which reduce the profits of Russian banking sector (decrease by 8.8% of the result for the nine months of 2014, year-on-year).

Other jurisdictions. In addition to Russia the Group conducts operations in Belarus, Kazakhstan, Ukraine, Central and Eastern Europe (Austria, Czech Republic, Slovakia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Slovenia, Serbia, Hungary, Croatia), Turkey, Switzerland and some other countries. Tough economic and liquidity situation in many countries led to a decrease or insignificant growth of GDP followed by shrinking in consumption as well as in investment activities. The primary goals of the local regulators included supporting financial stability, management of GDP deficit and inflation level regulation. In the nine months of 2014 economy of the Republic Belarus remained hyperinflationary as defined by IAS 29 Financial Reporting in Hyperinflationary Economies.

In the nine months of 2014, the economic and political uncertainty in Ukraine increased significantly. International rating agencies have downgraded Ukraine's sovereign debt ratings. The combination of the above events has resulted in deterioration of liquidity and much tighter credit conditions where credit is available. At 30 September 2014, the Group's exposure to Ukrainian risk amounted to approximately 0.6% of total consolidated assets (31 December 2013: 0.8%). The exposure consists of net assets of and the Group funding to the Group's Ukrainian subsidiaries, as well as investments in equity and debt instruments issued by and loans to the Ukrainian government and corporate clients.

Management is monitoring these developments in the current environment and taking actions where appropriate. These and any further possible negative developments in Ukraine could adversely impact results and financial position of the Group in a manner not currently determinable.

Selected Notes to the Interim Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements – 30 September 2014

3 Basis of Preparation

These interim condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with IAS 34 Interim Financial Reporting and should be read in conjunction with the annual consolidated financial statements of the Group as at 31 December 2013.

These interim condensed consolidated financial statements do not contain all the explanatory notes as required for a full set of consolidated financial statements.

4 Accounting Policies, Critical Accounting Estimates and Judgements, Adoption of New or Revised Standards and Interpretations, and Reclassifications

The accounting policies and methods of computation applied in the preparation of these interim condensed consolidated financial statements are consistent with those disclosed in the annual consolidated financial statements of the Group for the year ended 31 December 2013, except for the changes introduced due to implementation of new and/or revised standards and interpretations as of 1 January 2014, noted below:

Investment Entities – Amendments to IFRS 10 Consolidated Financial Statements, IFRS 12 Disclosure of Interests in Other Entities and IAS 27 Separate Financial Statements (issued in October 2012). These amendments provide an exception to the consolidation requirement for entities that meet the definition of an investment entity under IFRS 10. The exception to consolidation requires investment entities to account for subsidiaries at fair value through profit or loss. These amendments become effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2014.

Offsetting Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities – Amendments to IAS 32 Financial Instruments: Presentation (issued in December 2011). These amendments clarify the meaning of “currently has a legally enforceable right to set-off” and also clarify the application of the IAS 32 offsetting criteria to settlement systems (such as central clearing house systems) which apply gross settlement mechanisms that are not simultaneous. These amendments become effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2014, retrospective application is possible.

Novation of Derivatives and Continuation of Hedge Accounting – Amendments to IAS 39 Financial Instrument: Recognition and Measurement (issued in June 2013). These amendments provide relief from discontinuing hedge accounting when novation of a derivative designated as a hedging instrument meets certain criteria. These amendments are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2014.

IFRIC 21 Levies (issued in May 2013). IFRIC 21 clarifies that an entity recognises a liability for a levy when the activity that triggers payment, as identified by the relevant legislation, occurs. For a levy that is triggered upon reaching a minimum threshold, the interpretation clarifies that no liability should be anticipated before the specified minimum threshold is reached. IFRIC 21 becomes effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2014.

Recoverable amount disclosures for non-financial assets – Amendments to IAS 36 Impairment of Assets (issued in May 2013). The amendments remove the requirement to disclose the recoverable amount when a CGU contains goodwill or indefinite lived intangible assets but there has been no impairment. These amendments are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2014; earlier application is permitted if IFRS 13 is applied for the same accounting and comparative period.

The above mentioned new or amended standards and interpretations effective from 1 January 2014 did not have a material impact on the accounting policies, financial position or performance of the Group.

Management's estimates and judgements. Judgements and critical estimates made by Management in the process of applying the accounting policies were consistent with those disclosed in the annual consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2013.

Income tax expense is recognized in these interim condensed consolidated financial statements based on management's best estimates of the effective annual income tax rate expected for the full financial year. Costs that occur unevenly during the financial year are anticipated or deferred in the interim report only if it would also be appropriate to anticipate or defer such costs at the end of the financial year.

Commercial lending to legal entities comprises corporate loans, loans to individual entrepreneurs, federal bodies and municipal authorities. Loans are granted for current needs (working capital financing, acquisition of movable and immovable property), portfolio investments, expansion and consolidation of business, etc. Majority of commercial loans are provided for up to 5 years periods depending on the borrowers' risk assessment. Commercial lending also includes overdraft lending and lending for export-import transactions. The repayment source is cash flow from current production and financial activities of the borrower.

Specialized lending to legal entities includes investment and construction project financing and also developers' financing. As a rule, loan terms are linked to payback periods of investment and construction projects, contract execution periods and exceed the terms of commercial loans to legal entities. The principal and interest may be repaid from cash flows generated by the investment project at the stage of its commercial operation.

Consumer and other individual loans comprise loans to individuals other than housing acquisition, construction and repair of real estate as well as car loans and credit cards and overdrafts. These loans include loans for current needs.

Mortgage loans to individuals include loans for acquisition, construction and reconstruction of real estate. These loans are mostly long-term and are collateralized by real estate.

Credit cards and overdrafts represent revolving credit lines. These loans are considered a comfortable instrument for customers as a reserve source of funds in case of need available everywhere and anytime. Credit card loans are provided up to 3 years period. Interest rates for such loans are higher than for consumer loans as they carry higher risks for the Group.

Car loans to individuals include loans for purchasing a car or other vehicle. Car loans are provided for up to 5 years periods.

Reconciliation of profit before tax for the reportable segments with the Group's profit before tax under IFRS for the nine months and for the three months ended 30 September 2014 and 30 September 2013 is as follows:

(unaudited) in billions of Russian Roubles	Nine months ended 30 September		Three months ended 30 September
	2014	2013	2014	2013
Total amount per segment information	325.5	359.2	98.5	123.5
Adjustment of provisions	(10.3)	(8.0)	(18.5)	(4.8)
Staff expenses accrued related to the reporting period (bonuses, annual leave, pension liabilities)	(7.6)	(6.3)	4.2	1.9

Adjustment of depreciation and cost or revalued amount of premises and equipment	5.4	(3.2)	1.1	(0.2)
Other adjustments	(1.3)	(0.7)	4.7	1.0
The Group's total amount under IFRS	306.2	339.7	90.8	120.3

The differences shown above arise from classification variances as well as different accounting policies.

Adjustment of provisions is related to the difference between estimation methodology applied in statutory accounting records used as a basis for management reporting and estimation methodology according to IFRS.

Differences arising on securities classification relate to gains/(losses) on revaluation of securities designated as at fair value through profit or loss in IFRS reporting but classified as available-for-sale in statutory accounting records.

The sum of the line Accounting for derivatives at fair value includes adjustments to reflect: the recognition of derivatives accounted for in statutory books as off-balance sheet items, non-recognition of Day 1 gain from the complex structured transactions with embedded derivatives, the creation of CVA/DVA and the bid/offer provisions, as the necessary components of fair value.

For the nine months ended 30 September 2014 the Group's revenues from customers in the Russian Federation amounted to RR 1,437.2 billion (for the nine months ended 30 September 2013: RR 1,164.4 billion); revenues from customers in all foreign countries from which the Group derives revenues amounted to RR 168.1 billion (for the nine months ended 30 September 2013: RR 145.5 billion).

For the three months ended 30 September 2014 the Group's revenues from customers in the Russian Federation amounted to RR 506.2 billion (for the three months ended 30 September 2013: RR 411.1 billion); revenues from customers in all foreign countries from which the Group derives revenues amounted to RR 57.1 billion (for the three months ended 30 September 2013: RR 53.9 billion).

No revenue from transactions with a single external customer or counterparty amounted to 10.0% or more of the Group's total revenue during the nine months and the three months ended 30 September 2014 and 30 September 2013.

23 Financial Risk Management

The risk management function within the Group is carried out in respect of major types of risks: credit, market, liquidity and operational risks. Market risk includes interest rate risk, equity risk and currency risk. The Group's risk management policies are designed to identify and analyze these risks, to set appropriate risk limits and controls, and to monitor the risks and limits. The operational risk management functions are intended to ensure proper functioning of internal policies and procedures to minimize operational risk.

The Group's risk management policies and procedures are consistent with those disclosed in the annual consolidated financial statements of the Group for the year ended 31 December 2013.

Currency risk. Currency risk results from fluctuations in the prevailing foreign currency exchange rates. The Group is exposed to foreign exchange risk on open positions (mainly US dollar/Russian Rouble and Euro/Russian Rouble exchange rate fluctuations).

Foreign exchange risk on forward and future contracts is represented by their discounted positions. Foreign exchange options are disclosed in the amount that reflects theoretical sensitivity of their fair value to reasonable change in exchange rates. Commodity options are shown at their fair value in relative settlement currency. Equity instruments are classified based on the country of origin of issuer.

The table below summarizes the Group's exposure to foreign exchange risk in respect of financial assets, liabilities and derivatives as at 30 September 2014.

The Group provides loans and advances to customers in foreign currency. Fluctuations of foreign currency exchange rates may negatively affect the ability of borrowers to repay loans, which will in turn increase the probability of loan loss.

Liquidity risk. Liquidity risk is defined as the risk of mismatch between the maturities of assets and liabilities. The Group is exposed to daily calls on its available cash resources from overnight deposits, customer's current accounts, term deposits, loan drawdowns, guarantees and from margin and other calls on cash settled derivative instruments.

Following principles underlying gap analysis presentation and the Group liquidity risk management are based on the mix of CBR initiatives and the Bank's practice:

- Cash and cash equivalents represent highly liquid assets and are classified as "on demand and less than 1 month";
- Trading securities, securities designated as at fair value through profit or loss and highly liquid portion of investment securities available-for-sale are considered to be liquid assets as these securities could be easily converted into cash within short period of time. Such financial instruments are disclosed in gap analysis table as "on demand and less than 1 month";
- Investment securities available-for-sale which are less liquid are disclosed according to remaining contractual maturities (for debt instruments) or as "no stated maturity" (for equities);
- Investment securities held-to-maturity including those pledged under repurchase agreements are classified based on the remaining maturities;
- Highly liquid portion of securities pledged under repurchase agreements is disclosed based on the remaining maturities of repurchase agreements;
- Loans and advances to customers, amounts due from banks, other assets, debt securities in issue, amounts due to banks, other borrowed funds and other liabilities are included into gap analysis table based on remaining contractual maturities;
- Customer deposits aren't disclosed as "on demand and less than 1 month" although customers have an opportunity to withdraw money from any account, including term deposits, before maturity date, losing the right on accrued interest. Customer deposits diversification by number and type of depositors and the past experience of the Group indicate that such accounts and deposits provide a long-term and stable source of funding, and as a result they are allocated per expected time of funds outflow in the gap analysis table on the basis of statistical data accumulated by the Group during the previous periods and assumptions regarding the "permanent" part of current account balances.

24 Credit Related Commitments

The primary purpose of credit related commitments instruments is to ensure that funds are available to a customer when required. Guarantees and standby letters of credit, which represent irrevocable assurances that the Group will make payments in the event that a customer cannot meet the obligations to third parties, carry the same credit risk as loans. Documentary and commercial letters of credit, which are written undertakings by the Group on behalf of a customer authorizing a third party to draw drafts on the Group up to a stipulated amount under specific terms and conditions, are collateralized by the underlying shipments of goods to which they relate or cash deposits and therefore carry less risk than direct lending.

Commitments to extend credit represent unused portions of authorizations to extend credit. With respect to credit risk on commitments to extend credit, the Group is potentially exposed to a loss equal to the total amount of unused commitments. However, the likely amount of loss is less than the total unused commitments since most commitments to extend credit are contingent upon customers maintaining specific credit standards. The Group monitors the maturities of credit related commitments because longer-term commitments generally have a greater degree of credit risk than shorter-term commitments.

Outstanding credit related commitments are as follows:

	30 September 2014 (unaudited)	31 December 2013
in billions of Russian Roubles
Guarantees issued	1,727.9	1,362.4
Commitments to extend credit	1,630.9	1,477.8
Undrawn credit lines	674.7	545.7
Export letters of credit	408.5	399.5
Import letters of credit and letters of credit for domestic settlements	216.7	226.9
Total credit related commitments before provision	4,658.7	4,012.3
Less provision	(8.2)	(2.1)
Total credit related commitments after provision	4,650.5	4,010.2

As at 30 September 2014 Due to corporate customers included deposits of RR 103.3 billion (31 December 2013: RR 107.7 billion) held as collateral for irrevocable commitments under import letters of credit. Refer to Note 12.

The total outstanding contractual amount of undrawn credit lines, letters of credit and guarantees does not necessarily represent future cash payments, as these financial instruments may expire or terminate without any payments being made.

25 Fair Value Disclosure

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the appraisal date.

The Group uses the following hierarchy for determining and disclosing the fair value of financial instruments by valuation technique:

- Level 1: quoted (unadjusted) prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2: techniques for which all inputs which have a significant effect on the recorded fair value are observable, either directly or indirectly; and
- Level 3: techniques which use inputs which have a significant effect on the recorded fair value that are not based on observable market data.

Level 2 includes debt securities of first-class borrowers and derivative financial instruments that are not actively traded on the market. Fair value of these financial instruments was calculated using techniques for which all inputs which have a significant effect on the recorded fair value are observable on the active market. Financial characteristics of comparable financial instruments actively traded on the market were used as inputs for the fair valuation models.

The following describes the methodologies and assumptions used to determine fair values for financial instruments.

Derivatives

Derivatives valued using a valuation technique with market observable inputs derived from well-known market information systems are mainly interest rate swaps, currency swaps, forward foreign exchange contracts and foreign exchange option contracts. The most frequently applied valuation techniques include forward pricing and swap models, using present value calculations. Option-pricing is mostly done with Black-Scholes model and for certain types of options with stochastic local volatility model. The models incorporate various inputs including the credit quality of counterparties, foreign exchange spot and forward rates, interest rate curves and implied volatility.

Trading securities, securities designated as at fair value through profit or loss and investment securities available-for-sale

Trading securities, securities designated as at fair value through profit or loss and investment securities available-for-sale valued using a valuation technique or pricing models primarily consist of unquoted equity and debt securities. These securities are valued using models which sometimes only incorporate data observable in the market and at other times use both observable and non-observable data. The non-observable inputs to the models include assumptions regarding the future financial performance of the investee, its risk profile, and economic assumptions regarding the industry and geographical jurisdiction in which the investee operates.

The following table shows transfers between Level 1 and Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy for financial assets and liabilities measured as at fair value during the nine months ended 30 September 2014:

(unaudited) in billions of Russian Roubles	Transfers between Level 1 and Level 2
	From Level 1 to Level 2	From Level 2 to Level 1
Financial assets
Trading securities	0.4	0.2
Securities designated as at fair value through profit or loss	0.2	0.6
Investment securities available-for-sale	1.1	3.3
Total transfers of financial assets	1.7	4.1
Financial liabilities
Obligation to deliver securities	1.1	–
Total transfers of financial liabilities	1.1	–

The financial instruments are transferred from Level 2 and Level 3 to Level 1 when they become actively traded and fair values are determined using quoted prices in an active market.

The financial instruments are transferred from Level 1 to Level 2 when they ceased to be actively traded. The liquidity of the market is not sufficient to use the market quotation for its valuation and fair values are consequently obtained from valuation techniques using observable market inputs.

The financial instruments are transferred to Level 3 when they ceased to be actively traded and there is no possibility to use valuation techniques with observable market inputs.

For the nine months ended 30 September 2014 the gains in the amount of RR 2.2 billion reported in the consolidated statement of profit or loss on Level 3 financial assets / liabilities were unrealized.

Total gains / losses recognized as profit or loss on trading securities which are presented in the table above are reported in the statement of profit or loss within net (losses)/gains arising from trading securities.

Total gains recognized as profit or loss on securities designated as at fair value through profit or loss which are presented in the table above are reported in the statement of profit or loss within net gains / (losses) arising from securities designated as at fair value through profit or loss.

Valuation of share in a real estate company of RR 5.4 billion using valuation techniques based on non-observable inputs

The Group determined fair value of investments based on discounted cash flow model using the following key assumptions: type of WACC and estimated capitalization rate which depend on forecasts on property prices. WACC as at 30 September 2014 is 13.2%.

Should the discount rate used by the Group in the valuation model increase/decrease by 1.0%, the carrying value of the financial instrument would be RR 0.6 billion lower / RR 0.6 billion higher. Should the capitalization rate used by the Group in the valuation model increase/decrease by 1.0%, the carrying value of the financial instrument would be RR 0.7 billion lower / RR 0.8 billion higher.

Valuation of non-voting share in a special investment fund (SIF) with investments in oil companies of RR 2.5 billion using valuation techniques based on non-observable inputs

The Group determined fair value of investments based on discounted cash flow model using the following key assumptions: type of WACC and estimated guaranteed fixed yield on exit. Guaranteed fixed yield is not linked to the market and so has immaterial influence on the value of the financial instrument. WACC as at 30 September 2014 is 10.0%.

Should the discount rate used by the Group in the valuation model increase/decrease by 1.0%, the carrying value of the financial instrument would be RR 0.03 billion lower / RR 0.03 billion higher.

Valuation of share in a company with a real estate located in Moscow of RR 1.2 billion using valuation techniques based on non-observable inputs

The Group determined fair value of investments based on discounted cash flow model using the following key assumption type of WACC. WACC as at 30 September 2014 is 24.0%.

Should the discount rate used by the Group in the valuation model increase/decrease by 1.0%, the carrying value of the financial instrument would be RR 0.02 billion lower / RR 0.02 billion higher.

Valuation of investments in mutual fund which main assets comprised real estate investments of RR 0.8 billion using valuation techniques based on non-observable inputs

Fair value of investments in mutual funds' units whose main assets comprise real estate investments are determined based on fair value of properties. Each property is revalued regularly by independent appraisers using sales comparison and income approaches. Application of market average ranges, which is considered to be a reasonably possible change of assumptions used in valuation model for calculation of fair value of such units, results in increase/decrease of fair value by RR 0.08 billion in case of application of the highest/lowest end of the range respectively.

Valuation of share in an airline company of RR 0.9 billion using valuation techniques based on non-observable inputs

Investment in an airline company is valued using guideline companies method (combination of trading and transaction multiples). Following multiples were applied for calculation of fair value of the investment: EV/EBITDA.

The following significant assumptions were used in the model: ratio (50% / 50%) applied to the results derived from trading and transaction multiples valuation models, discount (41.6%) related to current market risks applied to trading and transaction multiples. As of 30 September 2014 the most significant assumption used in the model was the discount.

The potential effect of measuring the fair value based on the trading and deals multiple without applying the discount, which is considered a reasonably possible alternative assumption, would result in an increase of the fair value by RR 0.6 billion.

Valuation of investment in a mining company of RR 2.0 billion using valuation techniques based on non-observable inputs

Fair value of investments was determined based on net assets value, while valuation of the investments in the company's operational subsidiaries was based on discounted cash flow model using the following key assumptions: type of WACC, operational expenses, cost of investments, price and volume of sale.

WACC of operational companies as at 30 September 2014 is 11.1%, 13.7% and 15.6%. Should the discount rate used by the Group in the valuation model increase/decrease by 1.0%, the carrying value of the financial instrument would be RR 0.2 billion lower / RR 0.2 billion higher.

Valuation of foreign currency and precious metals derivatives contracts of RR 16.7 billion using non-observable inputs

The input used for estimation of fair values of foreign currency derivatives for 30 September 2014 was the yield to maturity of the Belarusian Eurobonds in USD 5.6%. The input used for estimation of fair values of precious metals derivatives for 30 September 2014 was the interest rate of attracting deposits in precious metals from individuals which is 6.0%.

The obligations in Belarusian roubles were estimated against the prevailing rate of attracting funds in Belarusian roubles which is 19.1%. Should the input rate for Belarusian roubles decrease for 500 base points the carrying value of the foreign currency derivatives would be 1.0% lower, the carrying value of the precious metals derivatives would be 2.5% lower.

The financial instruments are transferred from Level 1 to Level 2 when they ceased to be actively traded. The liquidity of the market is not sufficient to use the market quotation for its valuation and fair values are consequently obtained from valuation techniques using observable market inputs.

The financial instruments are transferred to Level 3 when they ceased to be actively traded and there is no possibility to use valuation techniques with observable market inputs.

The following table shows a reconciliation of the opening and closing amount of Level 3 financial assets and liabilities which are recorded as at fair value as at 31 December 2013:

During the year ended 31 December 2013 there was a transfer of Investment securities available-for-sale representing shares of the Russian stock exchange from Level 3 to Level 1 as they became actively traded during the year ended 31 December 2013. The carrying amount of shares of the stock exchange as at the date of transfer was RR 13.7 billion.

For the year ended 31 December 2013 the losses in the amount of RR 4.1 billion reported in the consolidated statement of profit or loss on Level 3 financial assets were unrealized.

Total gains recognized as profit or loss on trading securities which are presented in the table above are reported in the statement of profit or loss within net (losses)/gains arising from trading securities.

Total losses recognized as profit or loss on securities designated as at fair value through profit or loss which are presented in the table above are reported in the statement of profit or loss within net losses arising from securities designated as at fair value through profit or loss.

Valuation of a share in a real estate company of RR 4.5 billion using valuation techniques based on non-observable inputs

The Group determined fair value of investments based on discounted cash flow model using the following key assumptions: type of WACC and estimated capitalization rate which depend on forecasts on property prices. As at 31 December 2013 the estimated value of the WACC used by the Group comprised 10.0%.

Should the discount rate used by the Group in the valuation model increase/decrease by 1.0%, the carrying value of the financial instrument would be RR 0.05 billion lower / RR 0.05 billion higher. Should the capitalization rate used by the Group in the valuation model increase/decrease by 1.0%, the carrying value of the financial instrument would be RR 1.1 billion lower / RR 1.0 billion higher.

Valuation of investments in mutual fund which main assets comprised real estate investments of RR 1.7 billion using valuation techniques based on non-observable inputs

Fair value of investments in mutual funds' units which main assets comprised real estate investments is determined based on fair value of property units. Each property unit is revalued regularly by independent appraisals using sales comparison and income approach. Application of market average rates, which is considered to be a reasonably possible change of assumptions used in valuation model for calculation of fair value of such units, resulted in increase/decrease of fair value by RR 0.07 billion in case of application of the highest / lowest level of the range respectively.

Valuation of non-voting share in a special oil and gas investment entity of RR 1.6 billion using valuation techniques based on non-observable inputs

The Group determined fair value of investments based on discounted cash flow model using the following key assumptions: type of WACC and estimated guaranteed fixed yield on exit. Guaranteed fixed yield is not linked to the market and so has immaterial influence on the value of the financial instrument. As at 31 December 2013 the estimated value of the WACC used by the Group comprised 10.0%.

Should the discount rate used by the Group in the valuation model increase/decrease by 1.0%, the carrying value of the financial instrument would be RR 0.03 billion lower / RR 0.03 billion higher.

Valuation of foreign currency derivatives contracts and precious metals derivatives of RR 16.8 billion using non-observable inputs

The input used for estimation of fair values of foreign currency derivatives as at 31 December 2013 was the yield to maturity of the Belarusian Eurobonds in USD 7.5%. The obligations in Belarusian roubles were estimated against the prevailing rate of attracting funds in Belarusian roubles at the reporting date 34.9%. Should the input rate for Belarusian roubles decrease for 1000 basis points the carrying value of the foreign currency derivatives would be 3.9% lower.

The Group's consolidated net profit for the nine months ended 30 September 2014 would not change materially if the acquisition occurred on 1 January 2014.

The share of the subsidiaries of the Bank in the consolidated assets of the Group as at 30 September 2014 was 17.7% (31 December 2013: 15.4%).

31 Capital Adequacy Ratio

The Group's objectives when managing capital are (i) to comply with the regulatory capital requirements set by the Bank of Russia and (ii) to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern.

According to requirements set by the Bank of Russia statutory capital ratio has to be maintained by the Bank above the minimum level of 10.0%. As at 30 September 2014 this regulatory capital adequacy ratio N1.0 was 12.2% (31 December 2013: 12.9%). Compliance with capital adequacy ratios set by the Bank of Russia is monitored monthly with reports outlining the calculation.

The Group also monitors capital adequacy ratio based on Basel Accord to make sure it maintains a level of at least 8.0%. As at 30 September 2014 and 31 December 2013, Capital Adequacy Ratios calculated by the Group in accordance with the International Convergence of Capital Measurement and Capital Standards (July 1988, updated to November 2005) and Amendment to the Capital Accord to incorporate market risks (updated November 2005), commonly known as Basel 1 requirements, were as follows:
